WA venues big winners at National Hotel Awards

Six West Australian venues received national recognition at the annual Australian Hotels Association National Awards for Excellence held in Sydney overnight.

Cable Beach Club Resort, Esplanade Hotel Fremantle, Eco Beach Wilderness Resort, Settlers Tavern and Burswood Entertainment Complex won major venue awards, whilst The Breakwater's, Els Jennings, received national recognition for excellence in employee service.

AHA(WA) CEO, Bradley Woods, said the venues representing regions from throughout WA further reinforced that the State has some of the best hotels, bars, taverns and service professionals in Australia.

"West Australian hotel and hospitality venues operate to consistently high standards and have continued to develop the offer provided to guests and customers," Mr Woods said.

"Once again our venues have been judged on a national scale and been proven to be the best in their respective fields."
