Finalists for WA Hospitality Supplier Awards

The Australian Hotels Association (WA) has announced the finalists that will compete for the honours across 18 awards at the 2012 AHA(WA) Hospitality Supplier Awards to be held at Burswood Entertainment Complex, Monday 30 April.

The annual awards ceremony recognises the delivery of excellence by product and service providers to Western Australia's hospitality industry.

Australian Hotels Association (WA) CEO, Bradley Woods, congratulated the finalists and said the awards were an important way to celebrate the relationships and businesses that underpin the success of the State's hotel and hospitality sector.

"The awards recognise the consistent and daily delivery of quality products and services and the organisations that that support our hotel and hospitality sector being the best in Australia," Mr Woods said.

"The hospitality industry deserves to be rewarded and recognised for outstanding achievement in ensuring the State has great hospitality and tourism services and products.

"The Awards also recognise important relationships between industry and suppliers that maintain jobs, business reputations and strengthen WA's ability to provide a dynamic, innovative and reliable hospitality sector."
