New 1 Day Classroom or Online Course in Management of Licensed Premises (MLP1) for Approved Managers

A new liquor licensing training requirement for approved managers was recently announced by the Department of Racing Gaming and Liquor (DRGL).

Following consultation between the AHA(WA) and DRGL the Director has now amended the minimum requirements for Approved Managers to a one day course and a further announcement 29 May 2012 means from 1 June 2012, the AHA(WA), the industry's leading liquor licensing training provider, will deliver a new 1 day classroom or online course to meet the DRGL requirement.

The new Course in Management of Licensed Premises (MLP1) will:

- Be recognised by the licensing authority from June 1, 2012
- Be a one-day classroom or online course
- Require participants to have prior successful completion of RSA
- Licensees and managers approved under the current requirements will not be required to undertake further training.
